

2nd International Conference on Finance and Economic Policy (ICOFEF)

Limits to economic growth

Conference program

April, 18, 2018, Wednesday

16.00 – Workshop on financialisation with talk of prof. Giuseppe Fontana, Leeds University, "Financialisation, Wage Inequality and Secular Stagnation: Lessons from the UK" (1211Altum)

19.00 – Welcome Reception – Piwna Stopa Craft Beer Pub, ul. Szewska 7

April 19, 2018, Thursday

10.00-11.00 –Registration open

11.00-13.00 – Opening ceremony (Aula UEP)

Keynote Speaker – Olivier Damette, “Climate change as a limit to economic growth: the El Nino case”

Panel discussion – Finance, Culture, Environment – what really drives contemporary economic growth? (Members of the Scientific Committee - moderation Katarzyna Perez)

13.00-13.45 –Lunch

13.45-15.45 – Working sessions

Session 1 (room 416A) Macroeconomics and Economic Policy – chair Akos Dombi

1. Anna Matysek-Jędrych, Katarzyna Mroczek-Dąbrowska, UEP, Global financial crisis – short- or long-term factor of economic instability? Comparative study for the EU countries
2. Krzysztof Drachal, UW, Forecasting and finding determinants of the U.S. and Polish GDP growth with Dynamic Model Averaging
3. Paolo Ramazzotti, University of Macerata, Prices, institutions and the coordination of economic growth
4. Anna Horodecka, WSE, The economic growth as a goal of economic policy: critics and alternative views of heterodox economics
5. Paweł Łuczak, UEP, How do pension and healthcare systems frame long-term care policy? Comparison of the Czech Republic and Poland
6. Paweł Błaszczuk, UEP, The Maastrich inflation criterion definition in the context of euro area price dynamics differentials and deflation problem
7. Hanna Kołodziejczyk, UEP, Currency markets and the eurozone exchange rate convergence criterion - recent developments in Poland and Czechia
8. Anna Iwańczuk-Kaliska, UEP, Banking system and economic growth

Session 2 (room 417A) Financial markets and institutions– chair Andrzej Sławiński

1. Adjei Prince, Stephen Osei-Owusu, Dominion University College, Spillover Effects - Evidence From The Ghana Stock Exchange
2. Elżbieta Pohulak-Żołędowska, UEW, Venture Capital in Financing Innovation
3. Dorota Skała, Joanna Rachuba, US, Asset quality: do shareholders matter? The case of Central European banks

4. Michał Lukowski, UEP, Impact of Private Equity and Venture Capital Funds on Economic Growth
5. Renata Karkowska, Magdalena Pruszyńska, UW, Financial liberalization as a determinant of banks' efficiency
6. Alicja Fraś, UEP, Extraordinary gains as a determinant of mutual fund fees – evidence from Poland 2017
7. Elżbieta Gruszczyńska-Brozbar, UEP, The development of stock market – institutional factors

15.45-16.15 – Coffee break

16.15-18.15 – Working sessions

Session 1 (room 416A) Institutional and technological factors of growth – chair Andrzej Kondratowicz

1. Robert Ciborowski, UB, Factors of technological convergence in Central-East European Countries
2. Beata Woźniak-Jęchorek, UEP, Institutional limits to growth in labor utilization. Case of Poland
3. Magdalena Sliwińska, UEP, The role of the state in preventing market imperfections in the global economy
4. Katarzyna Szarzec, UEP, Akos Dombi, Eötvös Loránd University, Piotr Matuszak, UEP, State-owned enterprises in Europe: New data, new results
5. Barbara Sztokfisz, Cracow University of Economics, Potential Of Blockchain Technology In Developing Countries
6. Katarzyna Włosik, UEP, Liquidity Measures in the Bitcoin Market – Insights from Big and Small Exchanges
7. Aleksandra Rutkowska, Agata Kliber, UEP, Chicken or the egg - causality analysis of the relationships between Internet attention and the return rate evidence from stock, gold, and cryptocurrency.

Session 2 (room 417A) Public finance and regional policy – chair Kamilla Marchewka-Bartkowiak

1. Monika Banaszewska, UEP, Condemned to success (failure)? The allocation of EU funds among Polish municipalities
2. Carlos Bethencourt, Universidad de la Laguna, Lars Kunze, TU Dortmund, Economic growth and tax evasion: social norms impact
3. Marcin Bielicki, UEP, Innovative efficiency of European regions – from the Lisbon Strategy through the debt crisis to the Europe 2020
4. Sebastian Stępień, Katarzyna Smędzik-Ambroży, Marta Guth, UEP, Socio-Economic Sustainability Of Farms In Poland In Terms Of Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) Of The European Union
5. Aneta Kaczyńska, UEP, Inter-municipal cooperation in Poland – inter-municipal unions in the context of the change of education system
6. Giorgi Benashvili, Tbilisi State University, EU Trade and Economic Relations, Context of Post-Soviet Transformation
7. Klaudia Jarno, UEP, What drives the share of renewable energy in gross final energy consumption in the European Union

19.00– Gala Dinner (Concordia Taste)

April 20, 2018, Friday

9.00 - Registration open

9.15 – 10.00 Poster session (TBD)

9.30- 11.30 – Working sessions

Session 1 (416A) Social and Demographic Aspects of Growth – chair Michał Jurek

1. Wiktoria Domagała, UEP, Measuring Gender Occupational Segregation - an alternative approach
2. Ákos Péter Dombi, Otto Hajdu, Eötvös Loránd University, Income inequality and economic development: Is Emerging Europe different?
3. Anna Warchlewska, UEP, Economic decisions of Generation Y in the light of behavioral economics

4. Małgorzata Szczyt, UEP, Are contemporary demographic trends the limit for economic growth – international approach
5. Małgorzata Iwanicz-Drozdowska, SGH, Paola Bongini, Milan-Bicocca University Paweł Smaga, SGH and National Bank of Poland, Bartosz Witkowski, SGH, The role of banks in CESEE countries: Exploring non-standard determinants of economic growth
6. Katarzyna Świerczyńska, Ida Musiałkowska Agata Kliber, Paweł Marszałek, UEP, Perspectives of financial sector in sub-Saharan African countries
7. Izabela Bludnik, US, Paweł Marszałek, UEP, Endogenous money and financialization
8. Tomasz Szubert, UEP, Diversification of well-being indicators of the inhabitants of European countries based on the results of the Generations & Gender survey

Session 2 (TBD) Enterprises and markets – chair Dawid Piątek

1. Adam Metelski, UEP, Labor market effects of sport activities
2. Tomasz Gabrusewicz, UEP, Building strategies of enterprises from the SME sector using strategic accounting
3. Dorota Wisniewska, UEP, New Consumer Bankruptcy In Poland – A New Start Not Only For The Consumer?
4. Andrzej Czyżewski, Jakub Staniszewski, UEP, Economic premises for the structural genotypes of agriculture development in the European Union after 2004
5. Katarzyna Woźniak, UEP, Effectiveness of migration policy in the OECD countries – a new research perspective
6. Paweł Mikołajczak, UEP, Hybridity of social enterprises in the concept of institutional logics
7. Paweł Dzięcioł, UEP, A hobby as a predisposition to insurance knowledge. An attempt to find a basic features
8. Kamilla Marchewka-Bartkowiak, UEP, The limits of public debt growth

11.30-12.00 – Coffee break

12.00-13.15 – Keynote Speaker – prof. Bogusław Fiedor, “FROM THE REGULATIVE STATE TOWARDS THE ACTIVE PRO-GROWTH STATE POLICY” (111A, moderation Paweł Marszałek)

13.15-13.30 – Closing ceremony and Best Paper Award

13.30-14.30 – Lunch

13.00-14.30 Insurance Workshop for students provided by Concordia Ubezpieczenia (416 A)